

Module 1

Subject: History
Topic Title: Historical Skills and England before 1066.
Brief Summary of Content Studied: Learning important Historical skills, such as chronology, source analysis, significance and anachronism. To understand what England was like before 1066. How was Anglo Saxon society structured? Who were key figures in Anglo Saxon England?
Knowledge Organiser
Other resources and reading: Seneca Learning

Module 2

Subject: History
Topic Title: The Norman Conquest: Conquest and the Consolidation of control
Brief Summary of Content Studied: To discuss the drastic changes William made within England and the reasons for them. Also, to what extent did they help him gain control of the conquered nation? Who had the best claim to the thrones? Who had the best army? What was William's biggest problem?
Knowledge Organiser
Other resources and reading: BBC Normans

Module 3

Subject: History
Topic Title: Church, Crown and Democracy: Conquest and the Consolidation of control
Brief Summary of Content Studied: To be able to discuss where the route of power was and how the struggle developed between crown and church, and crown and lords. What were the roles within society and the struggles between them? Who were the key figures that brought about change in hierarchy?
Knowledge Organiser

Module 4

Subject: History
Topic Title: The Black Death: Causes and consequences of the black Death led to medical innovation and revolution.
Brief Summary of Content Studied: Why was the Black death significant in British History? What caused the Black death? How did beliefs and superstition influence concepts about the plague. " How impactful was the Black death on the lives of people during the Medieval ages? How did the Black Death change the political, economic, and social institutions of Europe
Knowledge Organiser
Other resources and reading: The Black Death BBC

Module 5

Subject: History
Topic Title: Religious reformation in England: Why did Henry VIII change England's religion?
Brief Summary of Content Studied: Understand what protestantism was, how it started and key differences between that and Catholicism. To discuss what type of King Henry VIII was and what relationships he had with his wife, Kathryn of Arogon and the church. Was Henry VIII a good king?
Knowledge Organiser
Other resources and reading: Henry VIII

Module 6

Subject: History
Topic Title: Monarchy influence over Religion - The religious rollercoaster
Brief Summary of Content Studied: Who was King Edward VI? Why was he made king despite older siblings? What implications did his reign have on the people of England? Why did The Tudors make changes to religion in England? What changes did each make to religion? How did Elizabeth try to end the Tudor Religious Turmoil? Was Edward VI a successful Monarch? Using sources to come to an informed judgement.

(Opportunity for class debate) Did Mary deserve her Nick Name Bloody Mary? Did Elizabeth's 'Middle way' succeed?

Knowledge Organiser

Other resources and reading:

Seneca Learning