

English Literature

Module 1

Topic Title:

Aspects of Tragedy: Othello

Elements of Crime Writing: The Rime of the Ancient Mariner

Brief Summary of Content Studied:

Introduction to the key aspects of tragedy/elements of crime writing relevant to the study of literature texts

Learning the key characters, events, themes and settings for the set texts

Learning to respond effectively to exam questions by constructing a strong argument, discussing authorial methods and intent, appreciating relevant contexts, criticisms and connections between texts

Module 2

Topic Title:

Aspects of Tragedy: Othello

Elements of Crime Writing: The Rime of the Ancient Mariner

Brief Summary of Content Studied:

Continuing to learn the key characters, events, themes and settings for the set texts

Building on the ability to respond effectively to exam questions by constructing a strong argument, discussing authorial methods and intent, appreciating relevant contexts, criticisms and connections between texts

Module 3

Topic Title:

Aspects of Tragedy: Othello

Elements of Crime Writing: When Will There Be Good News?

Brief Summary of Content Studied:

Continuing to learn the key characters, events, themes and settings for the set texts

Building on the ability to respond effectively to exam questions by constructing a strong argument, discussing authorial methods and intent, appreciating relevant contexts, criticisms and connections between texts

Module 4

Topic Title:

Aspects of Tragedy: Othello

Elements of Crime Writing: When Will There Be Good News?

English Literature

Brief Summary of Content Studied:

Continuing to learn the key characters, events, themes and settings for the set texts
Building on the ability to respond effectively to exam questions by constructing a strong argument, discussing authorial methods and intent, appreciating relevant contexts, criticisms and connections between texts

Module 5Topic Title:

Non-Exam Assessment

Brief Summary of Content Studied:

To work independently to construct a critical essay on a prose text and a poetry collection

Module 6Topic Title:

Non-Exam Assessment

Brief Summary of Content Studied:

To work independently to construct a critical essay on a prose text and a poetry collection